

Study program: Economics and Business Administration
Type and level of studies: Master studies
Course unit: Corporate Governance
Teacher in charge: Jelena D. Nikolić
Language of instruction: English
ECTS: 8
Prerequisites:
Semester: Winter
Course unit objective:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acquiring the relevant theoretical and practical knowledge in the field of corporate governance that is necessary for studying the complex relations between investors, managers and other stakeholders. • Exploring the limitations and requirements of different internal and external corporate governance mechanisms. • Understanding the key elements of different corporate governance models. • Understanding the problems related to corporate governance in transition economies. • Researching the process of creation corporate governance institutions in the circumstances of globalization.
Learning outcomes of Course unit
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will be able to develop and implement the new knowledge in the field of corporate governance; • Students will be able to understand the advantages and disadvantages of different corporate governance mechanisms; • Students will acquire the relevant knowledge for comparing and evaluating the corporate governance models; • Students will develop the ability to present the acquired knowledge in the field of corporate governance to the relevant academic and professional community; • Students will learn how to develop the skills required for individual research in the field of corporate governance.
Course unit contents
Lectures:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to corporate governance; • OECD Principles of corporate governance; • Models of corporate governance; • Internal mechanisms of corporate governance: ownership structure and board of directors; • The external mechanisms of corporate governance: the market for corporate control and legal/institutional framework; • Corporate governance in transition economies.
Practical teaching: case studies method, individual and group work
Literature
Mallin, C. (2019). Corporate Governance (sixth edition). University Press, Oxford.
Tricker, B. (2009). Corporate Governance: Principles, Policies and Practices. Oxford University Press, Inc., New York
Number of active teaching hours			Other classes
Lectures: 3	Practice: 2	Other forms of classes:	Independent work:
Teaching methods:
Professor's lectures, individual and group discussions, case studies, team work.
Examination methods (maximum 100 points)
Exam prerequisites	No. of points:	Final exam	No. of points:
Student's activity during lectures	10	oral exam	30
practical classes/tests	30	written exam
Seminars/homework	20
Project	10
Other			